Article 5 – MERIT CLASSIFICATION OF ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

On the completion of the examinations, the Examining Panel will establish the merit classification of the eligible candidates. The merit classification of the eligible candidates will be endorsed by the Foundation Superintendent and is valid for twelve months from the day following its approval, subject to possible extensions decided by the Foundation.

Article 6 – EXAMINING PANEL

The Examining Panel will be appointed by the Foundation Superintendent depending on current availability. In any event, the Examining Panel will be strictly comprised of experts with experience and competence in the field of auditions by examination who are not incompatible with current regulations in this field.

Article 7 – APPOINTMENT OF WINNERS – RECRUITMENT

7.1. Participating candidates must accept the conditions that the successful completion of the examinations does not guarantee recruitment, being subject to the approval of the merit classification by the Superintendent, the assessment of requirements requested for admission to the audition and the verification of requisites required by law which enable the Foundation to proceed with permanent recruitment, including economic-financial sustainability restrictions with regard to recruitment costs. The eligible candidates included in the merit classification will eventually be invited to take up employment commencing on the date specified by the Foundation in the official communication of recruitment.

7.2. Recruitment acceptance must be communicated by a written declaration. In the absence of this, the winner will be considered to have renounced the position.

7.3. The winning audition candidate who does not commence work on the date stipulated by the Foundation, renounces the right to establish the employment relationship.

7.4. Before establishing the employment relationship and under penalty of forfeiture, the eligible candidate must present the following documentation attesting to the possession of the necessary declared requisites:

1. A recent certificate of pending criminal charges (police record).
2. An authentic copy of a valid residence permit for non-EU citizens permitting working activity and the establishment of a contract as a permanent employee.

7.5. The confirmation of permanent recruitment is subject to the favorable outcome of a trial period stipulated in the collective labor agreement relating to the specific tasks.

7.6. There will be no recruitment of those who, on the date scheduled for the commencement of the employment relationship with the Foundation, maintain any other employment with other public or private institutions. To this end, at the time of recruitment the winner must submit a personal liability signed declaration stating to not have other public or private employment.
